WHO I AM

I am a 24-year-old content creator/influencer based in the San Francisco Bay Area, California. My content is focused on lifestyle, fashion, and beauty, as well as food and tech. I'm all about spreading positivity, finding beauty in life's moments, and celebrating fashion and beauty in all their forms. I recently decided to start taking my personal social media more seriously, as I enjoy trying new things, creating content, and sharing my experiences with others. My aesthetic is clean, bright, and feminine. I place a lot of value in creating high-quality content, and I look forward to working with brands in my area of interest and who share my values!
